Department of Education

Dear Madame:

Earlier, we have sent to your predecessor invitation for participation of teachers from your agency to the 9th PASCHR International Conference on May 18 – 20, 2023 which will be held at the Catanduanes State University.

May we reiterate the invitation?

The PASCHR is the Philippine Association for the Study of Culture, History and Religion. It is the Philippine member association of the International Association for the History of Religion which is affiliated with UNESCO. The conference will gather scholars from all over the Philippines and abroad, particularly South and Southeast Asia.

This year's conference theme is "Narratives and Practices of meaning-making: histories, cultures and religions in the Philippines in their Indo-Pacific contexts." In all, some 50 papers will be presented by scholars from 30 schools from all over the Philippines and some countries in the South, East and Southeast Asia.

Suffice it to say that the conference is a most welcome exposure for our local academics to the state-of-the-art in social sciences and humanities, even as it is too an opportunity to show-case to outsiders the beauty and worth of our beloved island-province.

In this regard, we are seeking your full support of the conference through an endorsement to public high school teachers in Catanduanes with the relevant field of specialization.

Your favorable action on this request will be highly appreciated.

Very truly yours,

RAMON FELIPE A. SARMIENTO, PhD
Vice President for Research, Extension and Production Affairs and Co-Convenor, 9th PASCHR International Conference

Virac, Catanduanes, Philippines

PASCHR is officially recognized as the Philippines' national association of the International Association for the History of Religions (IAHR) which has affiliations with UNESCO. As such, it operates under the policies and principles of said parent body, which seeks to promote critical, analytical and cross-cultural study of religion, past and present. The IAHR is committed to the highest standards of social science scholarship and is not a forum for confessional, apologetical, or other similar orientations.

The PASCHR broadly aims to contribute to the formulation of Filipino national identity through interdisciplinary and transdisciplinary research and scholarship on the Philippines' indigenous and folk traditions, as well as their colonial, postcolonial, and contemporary developments and links with Asia and beyond, from the perspectives of culture, history, and religion.

The Catanduanes State University (CatSU) is the premiere institution of higher learning in Catanduanes, an island-province in the Bicol region in the Philippines. Integral to its goal of excellence in instruction, research and extension is the aim of significantly contributing to the greater understanding of the human condition through research in the social sciences that highlights the local but in the context of the national and global. Catanduanes is a picturesque island paradise nestled on the eastern flank of the Bicol peninsula and is the official "Abaca Capital of the Philippines."
