Dear Sir/Madame:

Greetings In St. La Salle!

Aligned with De La Salle Santiago Zobel School's (DLSZ) continuing efforts toward excellence in education, the school's SPARKEd Center together with the Humanities and Social Sciences Area, Art Unit, and the Arts and Design Strand are organizing a Professional Development workshop for K12 educators with the theme, Reimagining Learning: Empowering the Next Generation for the Evolving Digital Frontiers. This two-day event aims to present the school's best practices for leveraging technology and pedagogy for blended and hybrid learning.

The event aims to present topics highlighting nation-building, digital citizenship, transformative learning, Generative AI, curriculum and instruction, and research and innovations.

By the end of the seminar-workshop, the participants should be able to:

Promote Adaptation to the D-VUCAD World

- gain insights and strategies to adapt teaching methods to the challenges posed by the Disruption, Volatility, Uncertainty, Ambiguity, and Diversity (D-VUCAD) world;
- align teaching approaches with the dynamic nature of learning in the current educational landscape toward achieving desired learning outcomes;

Explore Emerging Technologies in Education

- explore emerging technologies, particularly generative AI and new media, and their implications for education;
- understand how these technologies can be leveraged to reshape and enhance the learning experiences of the next generation;

Empower Educators for the Evolving Digital Frontiers

- provide practical tools and strategies in curriculum design, instruction, and data-driven practices through insights from both keynote and breakout session speakers; and
- foster a collaborative learning environment where participants can share experiences and innovative practices to empower them in the evolving landscape of education.
